

Ferrari F50

Imagine a car that is a mixture of power, beauty and elegance. That car is the Ferrari F50. It is very nice car. It costs Dhs. 990,000. I like this car for many reasons. First of all, it has a nice design. It has a long bonnet and sleek body. Its body is also solid and sporty. It comes in many beautiful colors.

Second, it is very fast and powerful, because its engine size is 4730 cc and its top speed is 202 mph. It can go from 0 to 60 mph in 3.8 seconds. It has eight cylinders and engine output in horsepower of 520 bhp.

Finally, it's a comfortable and safe car. It has four roomy seats which are made of leather and it's quiet. It also has many air bags on the door and one on the steering wheel. It also has four seatbelts, two in the front and two in the back. It is a luxurious car. It has a CD player, DVD in it.

So, the Ferrari F50 is a majestic and powerful car and has many specifications linked between power and luxury.
