

ESCALADE

Why did I choose this topic?

I chose this topic because my brother is going to buy this car as I asked him to. So it was good for me to know more information about this car that's why.

Three reasons to choose this car:

1. High-class car
2. Like to deal with this agency
3. Like to drive SUV's

Car Name	Engine	Horsepower	W/D	Passengers	Price
EXT	Vortec6000V8	345	AWD	5	53,010$
ESV	Vortec600V8	345	AWD	8	58,130$
ESCALADE	Vortec600V8	345	AWD	6	52,830$

*I*t's really a good site to visit because for me I found ever single information that I want to know about the EXT Escalade it contain every thing about the car like from a to the z. I mean the information was very accurate to me, the information is relevant I found the answers I wanted, the information were balanced with contrary views. The author is the only one I could trust in a thing like that. And I can contact him. The domain is COM as you can see. The site is up to date, easy to read, clear expressions. The graphics are help full were you can take a look of the car from every single angle, it's easy to browse and find information, plus it doesn't have these pop-ups and it's free.

*T*his link was good it had many information but there is some info that I didn't find in this site but over all it was good. I've read the information it seems to be accurate to me, but I didn't find all answers I wanted, the information was balanced, and the author is trusted and I could contact him, the domain is com, it's an up to date site, not very easy to read and it have mistakes, it was not very helpful. It had many links only one pop-up and it's free

*T*his link has nothing to do with the information I wanted about this car. There was no information at all. I think he's a guy just learnt how to make a web page but I could contact him. The domain is COM it's not up to date. There is nothing to read, one graphic only, no links but it's easy to brows, no pop-ups and it's free.
