About some important places for tourism in Japan => Tokyo

INTRODUCTION:

Tokyo, the capital of Japan, has a lot of important places that is beautiful to visit there. In this project I am going to write about some of them and here are some of links that linked to some webs sits that takes about some of them.

<http://www.japan-guide.com>

This web sit have the information that I want to my project and that is the reason to choose this web sit because:

- It is answering my topic.
- It has many helpful pictures.
- Many links to other web sits.
- Nice details and accurate.

The information there is accurate and balanced with contrary views. The author trusted and I can contact him. That page is easy to read with clear expression and the graphics helpful. The information is easy to find on it. There are no commercials advertisements and the site is all free.

This wed sit have the information that I want but less a little bit than the first one. However, it is very nice to use for several reasons:

- ❖ Many pictures that most of them are helpful.
- ❖ Many links.
- ❖ Good details but not like too much.
- ❖ It comes first when you search in google.

The information is accurate and balanced with contrary views. The author trusted and I can contact to him. That page is easy to read with some clear expression and graphics that helpful. It is easy to find the information on it. There are no commercial advertisements and the site is all free.

This web sit can help you in that project but not as the previous web sits. The information is accurate but:

- It does not answer my question clearly.
- The web presents facts with little analysis.
- The author trusted (which is under government control).
- Not easy to search on it.
